

SAMUEL THOMAS

Albuquerque, NM | 443-922-8736 | Samuel.Thomas@email.com

SUMMARY

Detail-oriented and knowledgeable archaeologist with six years of relevant experience and a master's degree in archaeology. Highly skilled in excavation and research with a special interest in Formative Stage and Archaic Era field sites, passionate about contributing to new discoveries and collaborating with like-minded professionals.

EXPERIENCE

- January 2020–
May 2024
- Tierra Cultural Resource Management, Archaeology project leader
- Oversaw the excavation of a Formative Stage burial site
 - Directed and coordinated a team of archaeologists
 - Prepared a project proposal and budgets
 - Wrote detailed reports on findings and proceedings
 - Collected and preserved important findings from the archaeological site
- June 2018–
January 2020
- New Mexico Department of Culture, Field assistant
- Assisted with the excavation of archaeological artifacts
 - Prepared field drawings and recorded findings
 - Helped preserve and catalog artifacts
- August 2016–
June 2018
- South Mesa University, Assistant lecturer, department of archaeology
- Delivered college lectures on the archaeology of the American Southwest
 - Conducted academic research into the Archaic Era in New Mexico
 - Authored scholarly articles for academic publications

EDUCATION

2018 University of New Mexico, Master of Arts in archaeology
2016 New Mexico State University, Bachelor of Arts in anthropology

KEY SKILLS AND CHARACTERISTICS

- Research
- Time management
- Excavation
- Critical thinking
- Fieldwork